

-- Underlying Assumption --

This position description defines the responsibilities of the Seminary Intern in the Seminarian Practicum. It is assumed that applicants for this position believe that Jesus Christ is their Lord and Savior, is enrolled in Seminary and is a member or joining Redeemer.

-- General Responsibilities – Communications Coordinator --

- Be open to being disciplined by Redeemer Pastors, Ministry Leaders and Lay Leaders.
- Be available and ready to learn how to practice the calling of a Pastor in hospital visits, leading special services, praying and preaching.
- Lead, serve and learn in a ministry context at Redeemer.

-- Detailed Responsibilities – Communications Coordinator --

A year long program of a 10hr a week commitment.

- 5 hours to be spent towards pastoral development
- 5 hours to be spent towards ministry experience.

Meetings to invest and equip seminarians through trainings and teachings with mentors, pastors, coaches and peers.

- Meeting with Spiritual Director.
- Meeting with Redeemer Coach/Coordinator.
- Meeting with outside Coach.
- Meeting with Senior Pastor to discuss Lutheran theology, liturgy and practice.
- Investment by Ministry Leader on leadership, ministry practice and health.
- Meeting with Ministry Team
- Involvement in Sunday Services. (ex. Preaching, Praying and Serving).

Ministry Experience.

- Serving in Ministry (ex. High School Ministry, Children's Ministry)
 - Leading in ministry.
 - Leading Ministry Event.
- Discipling a mentee
 - Someone in the ministry they are serving in.
- Mission trip or retreats.
 - Leading/participating in ministry trip or retreats. (ex. Nicaragua, Workcamp, Beacon House, VBC)

-- Job Skills –

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Able to work as a team member
- Familiarity with Redeemer family, leadership, and staff is desirable
- Open, eager to learn, humble and teachable.